NOVEMBER 2017 SERVICES, SUNDAYS AT 10:30 AM

Theme: Faith

November 5 Standing Before Us: Four women from Massachusetts who changed the world

Rev. Dr. Dorothy Emerson, Rev. Maddie

Universalists Judith Sargent Murray and Mary Livermore and Unitarians Margaret Fuller and Lucy Stone lived lives of faith and action that had lasting impact on our lives. Yet they remain for the most part forgotten. Why is that? What can we do to recognize their work and continue their legacy?

First Sunday Plate to CASP

*Tuesday, November 7 at 7 PM Gathering

Rev. Maddie

A weeknight Gathering with Sound, Silence and Word with Rev. Maddie, guest poet Atul Ranchod and musician Donna Lynn Caskey.

November 12 Political Correctness

Rev. Maddie, Jerry Gray

Are you PC? Do you think that it's all a bunch of hogwash...or do you not think we are PC enough? Thoughts on ableism, white supremacy, and patriotism on this Veteran's Day weekend.

Our choir sings: Blowin' in the Wind/America arr. Len Thomas

November 19 Give Thanks

Rev. Maddie, CJ Starling

A multigenerational worship service with a story of Stone Soup, song, and a cornbread communion with a homily by Maddie inspired by UU composer Joyce Poley's song:

Let us give thanks for the food that we share.

Let us give thanks for people who care.

Food feeds our body and love makes us whole.

Let us give thanks deep down in our soul.

November 26 Faith

Rev. Maddie, Allan Noel

Michelle Richards writes, "Faith is more than merely a series of ideas about religious matters. It is a foundation from which our beliefs emerge. Faith can be felt at the core of our very being and gives meaning and direction to our lives." What is the role of faith in your life?

Drop in Small Group on the theme of "Faith" after coffee hour

The mission of the Universalist Unitarian Church of Santa Paula is to practice inclusiveness, seek justice and foster spirituality.

Message from the Minister

My thoughts turn at this time of year, along with many among us, to what I am thankful for and how to better live from a place of generosity, abundance and faith. We will be sharing thoughts about Gratitude and faith during this month but especially at our Gathering on Tuesday, November 7 at 7 PM when the theme will be “Gratitude” complete with Banjo-gal Donna Lynn Caskey and at our Sunday services on November 19 when the theme will be “Give Thanks” and on November 26 when our theme will be “Faith”. You may want to share your thoughts at our next Drop-In Small Group which will be after coffee hour on the 26th.

Do you have a gratitude practice? Experiment with thinking about one thing you are grateful for when you get up in the morning and another thing when you go to bed at night. You may even keep a gratitude journal next to your bed. You may be surprised by how being focused on what you are grateful for in your life affects your mood and approach all day long and maybe even your sleep at night!

Here are some words by Chief Tecumseh of the Shawnee Nation (d. 1813).

When you arise in the morning, give thanks for the morning light.

Give thanks for your life and for your strength.

Give thanks for your food and give thanks for the joy of living.

And if you see no reason for giving thanks, rest assured that the fault is in yourself.

We have a lot to be thankful in our lives and in the life of our congregation. When we get bogged down in the everyday, let us remember the gift of our friends and our companions here on our path of faith. Let us remember the waxing and waning of the moon and the sprinklings of stars above our beautiful valley here in Santa Paula. Let us remember the food we can put on our tables and the songs of gratefulness we can sing together.

On the path of our faith,

Reverend Maddie

Message from the Board of Trustees

On October 14, Patricia English, Kate English, MaryBeth East and your minister, Maddie Sifantus attended a day long board seminar with board members of other area UU churches. The day included discussion, insight and the sharing of ideas among the board members and ministers. One of the exercises included a question of how to include the congregation in the decisions of the board. So here are questions for your consideration:

1. What would a community ministry look like if the whole church was involved?
2. How do we encourage new leadership in our congregation?
3. How should the church think about the stewardship of our building?
 - a) Physical upkeep
 - b) Marketing/Communication
 - c) Aesthetics
4. What would it look like if our mission was woven into the culture of our congregation?
5. How shall we grow our congregation?
 - A. What are we doing to keep our congregation small?

How would you answer those questions? Talk to a board member or Maddie.

We want to hear from you.

The mission of the Universalist Unitarian Church of Santa Paula is to practice inclusiveness, seek justice and foster spirituality.

Message from the RE Coordinator

Erik Halseth, Religious Education Coordinator

Kids' Place

"Do not ask your children
to strive for extraordinary lives.
Such striving may seem admirable,
but it is the way of foolishness.
Help them instead to find the wonder
and the marvel of an ordinary life.
Show them the joy of tasting
tomatoes, apples and pears.
Show them how to cry
when pets and people die.
Show them the infinite pleasure
in the touch of a hand.
And make the ordinary come alive for them.

The extraordinary will take care of itself."

— William Martin, The Parent's Tao Te Ching: Ancient Advice for Modern Parents

Famous UUs in History

Theodore Parker was a Unitarian minister who lived in the mid-19th century. His ministry was parish-based, but also heavily weighted towards the social justice causes of the day. Parker was a leading abolitionist, whose words were adapted by both Abraham Lincoln and Martin Luther King, Jr., in some of their most renowned speeches, including the Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and King's final sermon at the National Cathedral in March, 1968.

Theodore Parker spoke the following words at the Massachusetts Anti-Slavery Convention on January 29, 1858, and you may find them somewhat familiar from a number of King's speeches:

"I do not pretend to understand the moral universe; the arc is a long one, my eye reaches but little ways; I cannot calculate the curve and complete the figure by the experience of sight, I can divine it by conscience. And from what I see I am sure it bends towards justice."

Upcoming RE Youth Classes

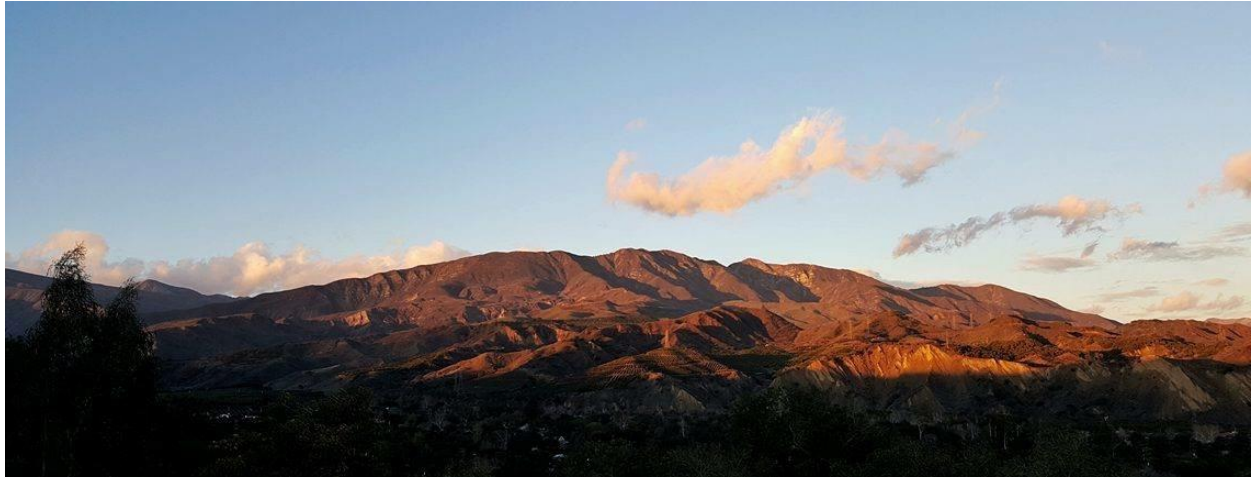

"It is a happy talent to know how to play."

— Ralph Waldo Emerson

A mix of new stories and discussions about the story from Time for All Ages are on the agenda for this month in the youth RE program. We will be discussing how the Islamic faith was formed with a story about Muhammed, and also talking about why we have a chalice as a symbol of our faith tradition.

The mission of the Universalist Unitarian Church of Santa Paula is
to practice inclusiveness, seek justice and foster spirituality.

Maddie Sifantus announces an Evening Gathering with Sound, Silence and Spoken Word at the Universalist Unitarian Church of Santa Paula on Tuesday, November 7th at 7:00 PM. This is a reflective time in our busy week to hear some beautiful music, share some silence and hear spoken word on a theme, which this month is Gratitude. The music will be provided by Donna Lynn Caskey. Donna Lynn, aka “Banjo Gal”, shares timeless yet topical claw-hammer banjo-based original songs that lift the spirits and touch the heart. Free, but with an optional free will offering to Gathering musicians fund; $10-20 suggested.

Original poetry will be spoken by poet Atul Ranchod, known to many in Santa Paula as one of the owners of the Santa Paula Inn. He has just published his first book of poetry, “Top of the Water”, which is available on Amazon.

CARING COMMITTEE

Do you want to learn how to be a better listener? This fall we have started a Lay Ministry Training to better serve our members and supplement the ministry of Rev. Maddie, our professional pastoral care provider. This training facilitated by Rev. Maddie takes place at the regular monthly meetings of the committee. Our next meeting is Thursday, November 16. Meetings are at 12:15 PM and last about an hour and a half. Let Rev. Maddie know if you are interested in joining with the Caring Committee members Barbara Beach, Karen Harris, Penny McManus, Delicia Niami, and Jan Shepherd. We have room for a couple more members; let Rev. Maddie know if you are interested.

“Zodiac Zunday” Once a month during coffee hour we will be honoring those who celebrate the astrological sign of that month. As we know, astrology is a pseudo-science often linked to superstition. We are hoping for this to be a fun time to connect with others while enjoying some delicious food. .

“ZODIAC ZUNDAY”: On November 19 we will be honoring Scorpios (October 23 - November 21).

The Scorpio is often misunderstood. These personalities are bold and are capable of executing massive enterprises with cool control and confidence. They can surmount seemingly all obstacles when they put their mind to the task, and they have unshakable focus when the situation calls for it. Regardless of their bold nature, they are often secretive, but they are always observing behind their withdrawn manner.

GUEST AT YOUR TABLE BOXES:

Each year we participate in the annual Guest at Your Table intergenerational program of the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee (UUSC) which raises support for and awareness about the work to advance human rights. This year's program theme is Small Change is Big Change, recognizing that each of us can make big changes in our community and the world. Each day families and individuals can put change in the boxes imagining a guest visiting their table. Checks may also be written to the UUSC. The boxes will be passed out during the service on November 19 and will be collected in early January. Extra boxes and donation envelopes will be on the table in the Parish Hall.

WINTER SOLSTICE 2017 PLANNERS AND CELEBRATORS

It's that time of year again! Rev. Maddie is beginning to plan Winter Solstice 2017 which will be on Thursday, December 21 at 7 PM in our Sanctuary. Rev. Maddie is talking with several community members and musicians about this year's version, including Xavier Montes, Vanessa Acosta, John Robles and others, hoping to do a more Spanish themed celebration this year. Please be in touch with Rev. Maddie if you have any ideas or want to help. There will be choirs, music and hilarity as we bring light to the darkest day of the year. And be sure to put the date on your busy December calendar.

PARISH HALL PIANO

In preparation for our first Rise Up Singing group in October, we had our piano technician, Dennis Ashley, bring the upright piano in our Parish Hall up to pitch. Who knows when it was last tuned and used?! (If you know more about this piano, please tell Rev. Maddie). Dennis tells us that our upright piano was built in New York City in 1890, the same year our church was being constructed. It is a Weber, a piano that is still being produced. The story is that at the age of 24, Albert Weber opened his first piano store on West Broadway in New York. The Weber piano won immediate praise and recognition after it was introduced into the market. Some of the many awards and recognitions the company received were the Philadelphia Centennial in 1876; at the American Exhibition in London, in 1887, and at the Paris Exposition in 1889. It will take some time to get our Weber to keep up to pitch and one day we will raise money to do some bigger work on it to change some strings. But for now, we have a piano for Rise Up Singing and anything else we might do musically in our Parish Hall.
