DECEMBER 2018 SERVICES, SUNDAYS AT 10:30 AM

More Than a Month of Sundays

THEME: : PEACE

John F. Kennedy wrote, "Peace is a daily, a weekly, a monthly process, gradually changing opinions, slowly eroding old barriers, quietly building new structures. And however undramatic the pursuit of peace, the pursuit must go on." The process of peace is both an inward pursuit as well as an external commitment. Peace, as Thich Nhat Hanh said, is every step.

December 2 "The Darkness and the Light Alike"

Rev. Anne Hines, MaryBeth East

In this season of shorter days and longer nights, can we find comfort and even courage from these words from the Psalmist? How might they guide us in our struggles to find inner peace? How might they speak to us in these troubling times in our nation, and in our world?

Rev. Felton-Hines retired fully in 2016 after over 30 years of parish ministry, all within our Pacific Southwest district. Since retirement she's worked as a Regional Transitions Coach for our Pacific Western Region, and a "Good Officer" for the Pacific Southwest UU Minister's Association. She also spends time with her family; volunteers at Ten Thousand Villages — a non-profit fair-trade store in Pasadena; serves on the Board of her local ACLU; and enjoys learning and performing new piano music.

December 9 Christmas Past: The Good Days Never Was

Rev. Dana Worsnop, Allan Noel

Rev. Dana Worsnop serves the Unitarian Universalist Church of Ventura and is with us today in a pulpit exchange while Rev. Maddie leads worship in Ventura. In the early 19th century, Unitarians helped "domesticate" Christmas, turning it into a children's holiday, complete with Christmas trees and Santa Claus. Except it never really was the holiday filled with light and the warmth of family. Truly human stories are never so uncomplicated.

*Tuesday, December 11 Gathering

Rev. Maddie, Geno Palilla, Christine Snipes Mazor

This is a reflective time in our busy week to hear some beautiful music, share some silence and hear spoken word on a theme, which this month is Peace. The music will be provided by classical music performers, Geno Palilla on piano, Christine Snipes Mazor on violin and Maddie Sifantus, soprano and include music of the season.

December 16 Spreading Light (St. Lucia)

Rev. Maddie, CJ Starling

How do we spread light and work towards peace in troubled times and season of holidays which many find so difficult? This year we bring back the St. Lucia Procession. Our choir sings.

December 21 Winter Solstice

Rev. Maddie, Chucumite

Cultures around the world mark the Winter Solstice and end-of-year holidays in different ways. We mark the longest night of the year with the aid of Veracruzian musicians, Chucumite's son jarocho traditional folk music, and the tradition of Rama (Branch). Let's bring light to the darkness! Fum Fum Fum!

December 23 Following Yonder Star

Rev. Maddie, Erik Halseth

This multigenerational play explores the legend of the Magi, reimagining the story to include their wives and children who also make the journey to Bethlehem. The story invites listeners to reflect on what calls us forward on our own journeys. Parts for all ages!

December 24 at 5 PM Christmas Eve

Rev. Maddie, Readers

We gather on Christmas Eve for a traditional Christmas Eve service of readings, Carols, and special music. We will end with the traditional candlelit Silent Night.

December 30 How to Grow a Soul

Rev. James Ford, Kate English

The Reverend James Ishmael Ford visits with us again this morning. Reverend James has complicated feelings about souls. He suspects they're not something that ride in our bodies like a passenger in a bus. But, rather are something we grow over our lives. Come and see if you agree.

CASP Offering

January 6 Burning Bowl

John Nichols, Jerry Gray

The Burning Bowl is an annual ceremony we perform each January. We will talk a little about the meaning of ritual and the history of the Burning Bowl ceremony and then write down some things we want to reduce or get rid of in our lives and then we burn them. It is a cleansing and healing ceremony to get the New Year started off right.

Message from the Minister

Here we go headlong into the holiday rush and bustle. If we line ourselves up with the dominant culture, there are cards to send, mistletoe to hang, and standing tiptoe on rickety ladders to hang up the lights—whether they be white lights or flashing, strobing, pulsing, icicle shaped, 50s retro style or small, twinkling bulbs. Let's not even get into how they may or may not work after being packed away after last Christmas when they were working perfectly well.

Wreathes are up on the doors, the Carols are blasting in the grocery stores and the local drugstores. Invitations are arriving in the mailbox, both the one at our houses or apartments and the virtual one in our computers and smart phones where we receive Evites. We are making lists of people—people we need to buy presents for which will need wrapping or gift cards we hope they will remember to use. We are making lists of stuff—stuff we can buy or make, stuff we need to do, stuff we need to bring down from the attic or out of the garage or storage unit. So much stuff...when what we really want is some peace and space

Our church has a chock filled calendar of things we can partake in—or not—which you can see by perusing this newsletter or by checking our events on our Facebook page. We have a Gathering with special music of the season on December 11. Jollity and light will reign at a Winter Solstice complete with our favorite Veracruzian group Chucumite and a few Fum! Fum! Fums! We have a Saint Lucia procession on December 16 with our choir and special music by Christine Snipes Mazor. Many of us will be attending the Latino Town Hall Awards on December 7 to recognize our member Audrey Vincent as she is honored with an award. We have a multigenerational play, Following Yonder Star, on December 23, buying gifts for our Rotary collection basket, and Christmas Eve when friends and neighbors join us here in this Sanctuary to hear familiar readings and sing familiar carols and Silent Night. Luckily, we also have our Meditation Group, yoga and T'ai Chi Chih in our Spiritual Growth Center to keep us centered and flexible in the midst of it all.

I hope that you take time from all the hustle and bustle to think about what this season means to you. I hope you make space for the “still small voice” that can inform you about what really is of importance as you shift through all the possibilities. I hope you consider the stories of old and what parts of them you want to make part of your living and thinking at the end of this year and into the new one. I hope to see you at one of our many activities and services this December. Wishing you light in the darkness and the surprise of love in unexpected places.

On the path of our faith, Reverend Maddie

2019 Cavass Update

Thank you to all who have returned your pledge cards or sent funds for our matching grant offered by the Marjorie Newlin Leaming Capital Fund Trustees. Thus far we have received 21 pledges totaling $56,920 with a total of $4,340 for our matching grant up to $6500. Our 2019 pledge goal is $77,000 and we're at 79% of that goal. Thank you again.

Please send in any outstanding pledge cards by November 30. If you have any questions, please reach out to Patricia English or MaryBeth East. Our church administrator, Krystal Johnson, is also available to assist.

Message from the RE Coordinator

December Is All About Kids!!!

December is an exciting month for our congregation, with the kids participating in a number of services throughout the month. We have 3 multigenerational services, and another service during which the kids will present the Santa Lucia. First up is the 16th of December: before going to RE class, the kids will be acting in the Santa Lucia procession. Next, we are planning to have children singing in our Solstice Service on Friday the 21st. On Sunday the 23rd, kids and adults will be presenting Following Yonder Star, a multigenerational Christmas play. And on Christmas Eve at 5pm, everyone will be singing carols in the sanctuary.

Multigenerational services are important. There is nothing like the shared experience for all ages of being in the sanctuary together, singing, listening, and learning. Coffee hour is a different time for us when all have been in the same space for an entire service. And it teaches the children that many of the same things happen in the sanctuary as in our classrooms.

Upcoming RE Youth Classes

“I like to compare the holiday season with the way a child listens to a favorite story. The pleasure is in the familiar way the story begins, the anticipation of familiar turns it takes, the familiar moments of suspense, and the familiar climax and ending.”

--Fred Rogers

This month, we are doing a lot of preparation for the services that include the children (see above). This includes working on props, learning songs, and getting into the holiday spirit.

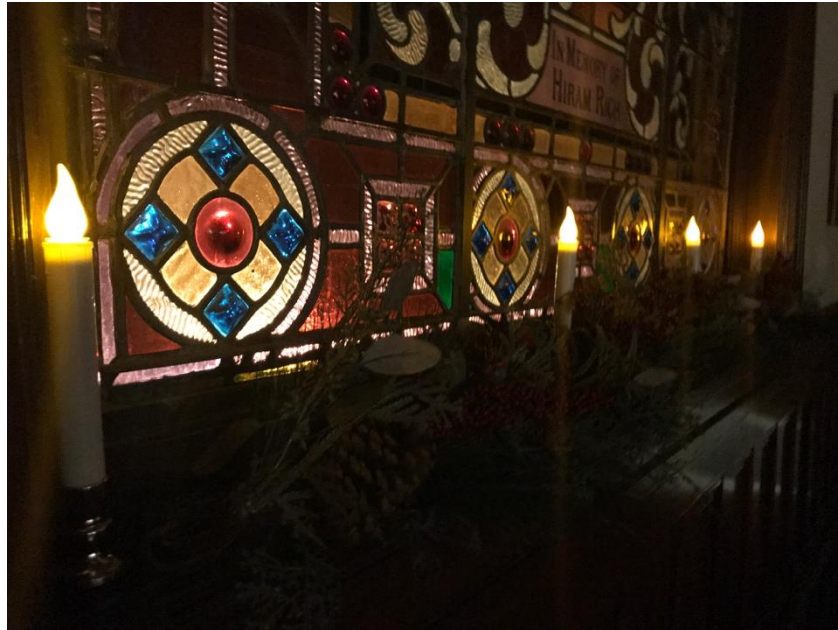

The mission of the Universalist Unitarian Church of Santa Paula is to practice inclusiveness, seek justice and foster spirituality.

December 2018

- Rev. Audrey, Rev. Betty and Rev. Maddie participated in the Santa Paula Ministerial Association's Thanksgiving Interfaith Service held at El Buen Pastor Methodist Church, which in its early days was the Spanish Mission that our congregation supported. Their Pastor, Lupita Alonso-Redondo, delivered the Homily, "We Would Be One." The Offering was introduced by Chaplain Kay Wilson-Bolton and went to support the shower program for the homeless hosted at El Buen Pastor.
- We are grateful that our community was not personally impacted by the November fires or the shootings in Thousand Oaks but we are aware that many in our neighboring congregations were, especially in our congregation in Conejo Valley. Our thoughts are with them and all those affected by these newest tragedies.
- If you have any News from Among Us you would like to share with our community, please let Rev. Maddie know by the newsletter deadline which is the 21st of every month.

OFFICE HOURS AND PASTORAL COVERAGE

Rev. Maddie returns from sitting on the Winter Meeting of the Ministerial Fellowship Committee of the Unitarian Universalist Association's on December 3. Rev. Betty will be providing pastoral coverage while she is gone. Starting December 4, she will be usually available in the office by appointment or pot luck drop in from Tuesday through Friday. Monday is Rev. Maddie's day off and Saturday is her study/sermon writing day. Some days she is working from home but can get to the office in five minutes, if something comes up. The best way to plan a time to meet with her is to call and leave a message on her private line at the church, 805-525-4620, call her on her cell phone, 508-733-8860 or email her at msifantus@uuma.org. She is happy to meet you in her office, at your home or place of work, or at a local restaurant for a cup of tea or coffee (she will buy her own!). The minister's office is in the back of the church, near the rest rooms. If the front or back doors are locked, call her, and she will come let you in through the back gate off the alley.

4th QUARTER FIRST SUNDAY PLATE OFFERING

Our 4th Quarter First Sunday Offering recipient will be the One Stop Shower Program for the homeless, at El Buen Pastor Methodist Church, which is held in the parking lot of the church every Friday morning. In addition to the monetary offering that we collect the first Sunday of October, November and December, we are collecting donations of men's underwear and socks. There is a basket in the Parish Hall for the collection of these donations.

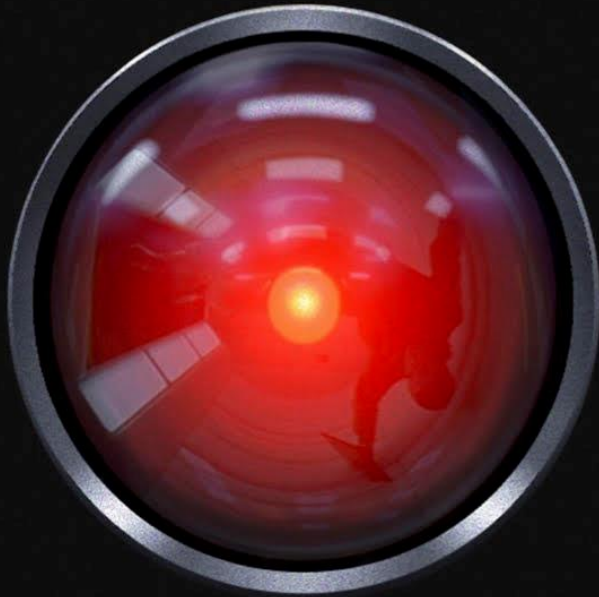

LAST SUNDAY OF EACH MONTH

The Last Sunday of each month we collect canned goods, rice and beans and other non-perishable food for CASP: Community Assistance Santa Paula. CASP, a non-profit organization, provides a Food Pantry to serve the disadvantaged of Santa Paula. Being a community charity, CASP's Food Pantry program is largely dependent on the generosity of its citizens.

SANTA PAULA CINEMA SOCIETY

DECEMBER 14, 2018

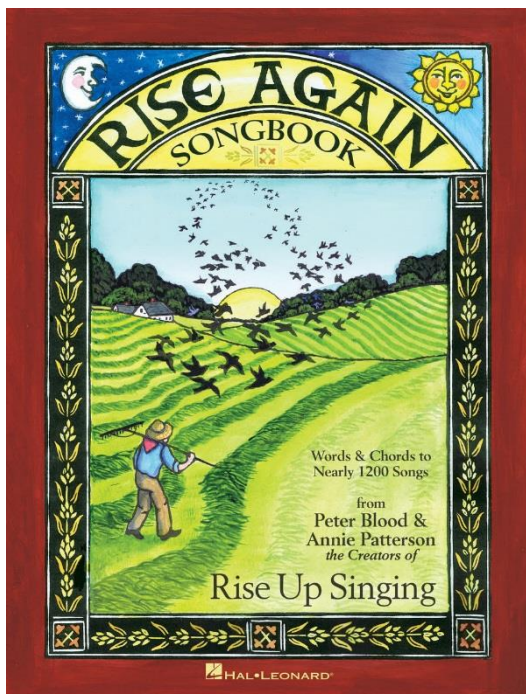

Stanley Kubrick labored for nearly four years in making 2001: A SPACE ODYSSEY, solving technical problems involving sets, casting, costuming, sound, and music, and creating industry-altering production values that would have defeated a less meticulous and determined filmmaker.

The result is not so much a genre film than a modern film that trusts the audience to apply their imaginations to what they are seeing. Like an abstract painter, Kubrick gives us only the sparest of brushstrokes, knowing that the artist's most useful pallet is the mind of the viewer.

In making a film that did not try to explain itself, Kubrick got well ahead of audiences and critics in 1968. The film was panned critically, and a flop commercially when it was first released. MGM was on the verge of pulling the film from theaters when it began to find younger audiences attracted to some of its more psychedelic elements. They too were perhaps missing the point, but the renewed interest saved the film from an even worse fate. Fifty years later we can see Kubrick's vision has been fully vindicated, and that alone qualifies it as true masterwork.

With Keir Dullea, Gary Lockwood, and Douglas Rain. Screenplay by Kubrick and Arthur C. Clarke. Will be shown in HD with the complete original entry, intermission, and exit music, on our new large screen and with a sound system brought in for just this showing.

RISE UP SINGING WILL RISE AGAIN!

Our Rise Up Singing community singing group is named from the title of the book Rise Up Singing. The editors have a second collection of 1200 songs, Rise Again. In December, all singers are invited to join in the Winter Solstice Celebration, Fum! Fum! Fum!, on the third Friday, December 21 at 7 PM. It will be followed by a potluck reception and a Rise Up Caroling in the Parish Hall. We are back on the third Friday schedule on January 18 at 7 PM in the Parish Hall. Instruments and all ages invited. Donna Nelson won't be available the first month's of 2019 due to a conflict so please encourage guitarists, uke players, pianists or any other musician to join in the fun. Be in touch with Rev. Maddie for more information: msifantus@uuma.org or 805-525-4620.

THE SOCIAL CONCERNS ACTION COMMITTEE

- MEETING - Wednesday, December 12, 6:30 pm. Discussion will focus on films for 2019.
- A new shipment of PALESTINIAN OLIVE OIL is on order and expected any day for your holiday social justice gifting this season for a mere $16. per bottle. We are ordering from a fair-trade source supplying organic extra virgin olive oil grown in Palestine. This source supports the work of farmers in the Ramallah area who are prohibited from selling their oil in neighboring Israel or Jordan. This olive oil is "characterized by its distinct personality, robust aroma, and a flavor evocative of fresh fruit. It has a peppery bite and a hint of bitterness [a desirable trait] that disappears as the oil ages over time. Once you have tried olive oil from Palestine, most other olive oils appear bland by comparison." See Audrey Vincent to place your order.
- CHRISTMAS BASKET PROJECT sponsored by Rotary: This Christmas season we are supporting Santa Paula families undergoing hardship through Rotary's annual endeavor to bring a happy holiday into recipient homes by providing a turkey, trimmings, and non-perishable foods plus gifts for children. Particularly needed are gifts for teens, such as journals, crafts, electronics, etc. Checks are also welcome. There's a box for the Christmas Basket Program in the Parish Hall.
- ONE STOP SHOWER PROGRAM for the homeless, at El Buen Pastor Methodist Church We are still collecting donations of men's underwear and socks. There is a basket in the Parish Hall for the collection of these donations.
- EXPAND YOUR MIND will meet Sunday, January 13, 2:00 PM at Anna and Jim Cole's house in Ventura. Start reading now (or at least before the meeting) America: The Farewell Tour by Chris Hedges. This profound and provocative examination of America in crisis is "an exceedingly...provocative book, certain to arouse controversy, but offering a point of view that needs to be heard" (Booklist), about how bitter hopelessness and malaise have resulted in a culture of sadism and hate."

Get your Guest at Your Table box

Did you get your "Guest At Your Table" box? You can still pick up one from the Parish Hall. These boxes sit in for all the people around the world that The Unitarian Universalist Service Committee is helping, not only in the struggle for a safer and more democratic world, but in getting basic health service and food for all. You feed your guest with coins, dollars, every day. We will collect the boxes on Sunday, January 13 during the service. Or you can write a check made out to the UUSC and can be put with the offering in the plate on a Sunday or mailed to the church. Offerings of $125 or more will be matched.

What is Guest at Your Table?

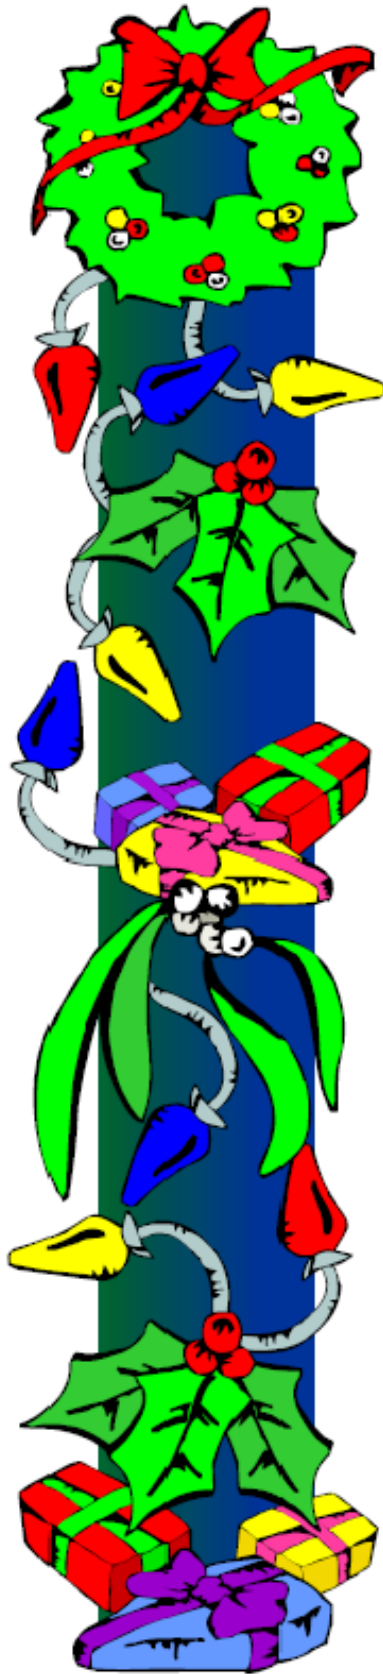

Guest at Your Table is the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee's annual intergenerational program to raise support for and awareness about key human rights issues. Since UUSC works in over 25 countries, with over 75 grassroots partners, there are thousands of individuals involved in and who benefit from the work that our members make possible. The program is an opportunity to celebrate grassroots partnership, support human rights, and learn about just four of these individuals – the "guests" in Guest at Your Table.

2018-2019 Theme: Justice Across Borders

From the Northern Triangle of Central America, to deserts of Mexico and Arizona, to detention centers in the United States, the road away from danger is paved with injustices. Partnering with grassroots allies along the Central American migration trail, UUSC addresses root causes, supports migrants in transit, and protects the right to seek asylum. Join with UUSC for Guest at Your Table to learn more about UUSC's and our nation's involvement in Central America – historically and presently – and our courageous Migrant Justice partners.

Billy McLaughlin

Recognized as an innovative performer and composer who embraces the advantages of acoustic guitar amplification, unorthodox techniques and altered tunings while celebrating a gift for melody. His enormous yet fluid acoustic guitar tone has carried him around the world, to Billboard's Top-Ten Chart and most recently through a devastating medical disorder called Focal Dystonia. McLaughlin has had to re-learn the guitar left-handed and is in the early stages of what might be described as 'one of the great musical-comeback stories of all time.' His story is the subject of an award-winning documentary film called Changing Keys – Billy McLaughlin and the Mysteries of Dystonia.

Robyn Carmichael: Classical Piano

Join us with or without your Valentine for romantic music of Chopin and Mendelssohn. Carmichael's distinctive style has defined her concerts in the U.S. and Europe. Her past season included West Coast concerts in Seattle, Portland, San Diego, San Francisco, a radio interview on Berkeley's KPFA-FM "Piano" program, and a CD release with music of Scarlatti, Mendelssohn, Chopin, Schumann, de Falla, Tchaikovsky, Bach-Alkan, and Rachmaninoff.

Landmark String Quartet

(Formerly known as Sincopa String Quartet)

The Landmark String Quartet changed their name in 2018 from the Sincopa String Quartet, drawing inspiration from their supporters' suggestions and comments. Their goal is to rejuvenate so-called classical music for newer generations. They want to bring the live music into every corner in the world. Does classical music only belong in a serious concert hall? Is classical music boring? Landmark String Quartet, as the former Sincopa String Quartet, played the Santa Paula Concert Series in 2016. They have also played at many other venues including the Ojai Art Center Concert Series and Desert Hot Spring Concert Series. The members of Landmark String Quartet are from very different countries and cultures, yet they met in Los Angeles with the same dream. Each one of us has his or her own accomplishments in music performance. We are mixed with Brazilian, Czech, Korean and Taiwanese cultures! This factor makes us together as one!
