OCTOBER 2021 SERVICES, SUNDAYS AT 10:30 AM

OCTOBER THEME: Cultivating Relationship

Mark Morrison-Reed has said, "The central task of the religious community is to unveil the bonds that bind each to all. There is a connectedness, a relationship discovered amid the particulars of our own lives and the lives of others. Once felt, it inspires us to act for justice. It is the church that assures us that we are not struggling for justice on our own, but as members of a larger community. The religious community is essential, for alone our vision is too narrow to see all that must be seen, and our strength too limited to do all that must be done. Together, our vision widens and our strength is renewed."

October 3 Loss—Holding On and Letting Go

Michael Eselun with Rev. Maddie

Moving together through these challenging times, we find ourselves confronted by loss in so many dimensions. What might be there for us? Do we hold on or let go? UCLA Oncology Chaplain and popular guest speaker, Michael Eselun will share reflections on these questions.

First Sunday Plate to Interface Youth and Family Services

October 10 This Land is Whose Land?

Rev. Maddie, Mary Nelson

We know that the land we live on in the Santa Clara River Valley is land occupied for thousands of years by the Chumash. How do we acknowledge that this day now called Indigenous Peoples' Day?

Tuesday, October 12 7PM

Gathering

Rev. Maddie, Sahba Sizdahkhani, Atul Ranchod

This is a reflective time in our busy week to hear some beautiful music, share some silence and hear spoken word on a theme, which this month is Communion. The music will be provided by Iranian musician, Sahba Sizdahkhani. Original poetry by Atul Ranchod. Led by Rev. Maddie.

October 17 Our New UU in 2022

Rev. Maddie with Jerry Gray

As we kick off our Canvas for 2021-2022, Rev. Maddie thinks about our Theme of Cultivating Relationship as we are newly hybrid, inside and outside our walls and how each of us can bring our gifts to this chosen relationship.

The mission of the Universalist Unitarian Church of Santa Paula is to practice inclusiveness, seek justice and foster spirituality.

October 24 Rooted Together

Rev. Liz Murphy with Rev. Dr. Betty Stapleford

The natural world is a beautiful teacher of the possibility of relationship surrounding us -- and the harmony possible in community. What truth and connection might we find just outside our back doors? How might we learn some powerful lessons from the buzzing bees and the sprouting leaves? This Sunday, we'll consider how we are "Rooted Together," examining how the spirit of life works within us and around us when we most need it.

UUs Back in the Day, Leslie Nichols

Those who will attend in the sanctuary can share objects and photographs on our altar table. Those on Zoom and Facebook can send photographs to minister@uucsp.org for a slide show. Let us remember those gone from our lives this year and years past. ## Message from the Minister

How wonderful it was to see familiar faces in the chairs in our Sanctuary this September! On our first Sunday back, we had 25 people in the Sanctuary including the Tech Team and Worship Team, 18 people on Zoom and 21 people engaged with it on Facebook where many watch after the fact. As we move into October, we are happy to welcome you back in our airy space where we have the doors and windows open. We are having a limited coffee hour afterwards at this point. Please be vaccinated, masked, and sit socially distanced if you are in the Sanctuary. Please do not attend in person if you are feeling ill. And we are continuing on Zoom and Facebook going forward and will be looking to post parts of our services on YouTube once we figure out how to do it!

As we go into the fall and COVID continues, remember that you can make the difference to our members and friends suffering from the negative effects of social isolation versus feeling connected and engaged in our community. Though the pandemic has kept many of us apart physically, our UU faith calls us to extend compassion, kindness, and support to those who are part of our community, those exploring our community and those beyond our walls. What will you do to reach out to our members and friends? How can we reach beyond our building to Main Street and beyond? Perhaps you would like to sit with Ken Stock and I outside the church on Cruise Night, October 1 and greet passersby, sing a note or two, or support Friendship Bridge by doing shopping at their Tipica Sale in our Memorial Garden (information elsewhere in this newsletter). Perhaps you would like to share a Time for All Ages during our Sunday service, a reading, or a piece of music. Perhaps you would like to decorate our Altar Table. Perhaps you have a workshop you would like to lead on Zoom, in our Memorial Garden or in our Parish Hall (masked etc.). Perhaps you would like to attend a meeting of our Mary A. Livermore Society or our Social Concerns Action Committee. As we look forward to this new church year, the upcoming canvas and beyond, how can you—how can we—step into Our New UU in 2022?

I am always available to talk with you about your hopes and dreams for this beloved community as well as how you are dealing with the stresses of this “different time”, even as we hope for normalcy.

On the path of our faith,

Reverend Maddie

Message from the Board of Trustees

What a wonderful "official" opening for the new church year with our UU Message being sent out and received in person, on Facebook, and via Zoom on Sept. 12. The sharing of the waters that were blended further illustrates how we come together from many places to do important work through our beloved UUCSP. And as is often true, doing good work takes a bit of money. Coming up this month-October-we kick off our yearly CANVASS CAMPAIGN where we are asked to think about how we can share financially with this wonderful institution that promotes a liberal religious voice to our community. Oct. 22 is a special Sunday devoted to this goal. Do take some time in your next weeks to think about what you might be able to contribute. Be assured that our Treasurer, Finance Committee, and Board of Trustees are careful stewards of what you might give, and our mission is to do good work for us and the world beyond.

Leslie Nichols, Board President

2022 Canvass Is Coming

October is the time of year we at UUCSP conduct our annual church canvass. This year's theme is "Our New UU in 2022". I think we can all agree that life is not the same since March of 2020, and we all are doing things differently in both our personal lives and in our church activities. For almost 19 months we did not meet in person as a congregation but continued our Sunday services through Zoom and Facebook. Committee work and Board meetings were held via Zoom and if you had in-person work to be done in the church building, masks were worn and social distance maintained. New ways were found to continue our service rituals such as a drive-by flower exchange for Flower Communion Sunday and home deliveries of candles for the Christmas service and blessed water for the Gathering of the Waters Sunday. We also had to find new ways to give money to the church since the Sunday plate could not be passed as a reminder.

We don't know what church life will look like in 2022 as the pandemic continues., but we do know that the financial needs of the congregation continue to be challenging and thus your financial support continues to be vital. The Canvass Committee is asking you to do two things. First, check to see if you are up to date on your 2021 pledge and second, think of what our UU church can be in 2022 to support you, our community and further the UU message beyond our walls.

The 2022 pledge cards will be mailed mid-October so please take time now to think of your 2022 pledge amount so you'll be ready to recommit to the ongoing support of our church.

Thank you for your continued emotional and financial support and we look forward to our “new UU in 2022”.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH CENTER

As we begin to open up after the pandemic, we encourage you to find ways to continue your spiritual practices at home, join yoga which is once more in the Parish Hall or join Rev. Maddie or Jim Cole leading Meditation on Wednesday evenings at 6 PM on Zoom or livestreaming from our Facebook page. Yoga is led by Lisa Hammond. Be in touch with her for more information. Our Spirit Growth Center provides opportunities and programs to awaken and sustain love, compassion, service, and personal transformation in line with the Mission of the Universalist Unitarian Church of Santa Paula: Practice Inclusiveness, Seek Justice and Foster Spirituality. Our goal is to help individuals discover how spiritual practice, learning, and community service can transform their lives and move the world toward peace and justice. Our programs are guided by the set of Seven Principles of Unitarian Universalism and the Six Sources they draw from. One of the Principles affirms our intention to accept one another and encourage each other's spiritual growth. Would you like to offer an activity on Zoom, as we become hybrid or in our Parish Hall? ## REV. MADDIE'S OFFICE HOURS

Rev. Maddie would love to catch up with you, whether or not you have anything “big” to talk about it! She is usually available in the office by appointment or potluck drop in from Tuesday through Friday. Rev. Maddie’s office is located in the “addition” across from the rest rooms at the back of our building. Monday is Rev. Maddie’s day off and Saturday is her study/sermon writing day. Some days she is working from home but can get to the office in five minutes if something comes up. The best way to plan a time to meet with her is to call and leave a message on her private line at the church, 805-525-4620, call her on her cell phone, 508-733-8860 or email her at msifantus@uuma.org. She is happy to meet you on Zoom, in her office, at your home or place of work, or at a local restaurant for a cup of tea or coffee (she will buy her own!). The minister’s office is in the back of the church, near the rest rooms. If the front or back doors are locked, call her, and she will come let you in through the back gate off the alley.

- On September 19th Rev. Maddie officiated at the wedding of our members Judy Triem and Mitch Stone at their home. Congratulations!
- Our thoughts are with the family and many friends of Ari Larsen who died in her sleep last week. She will leave a large hole in the Fillmore and Santa Paula communities.

We thank Judith Beay and Penny McManus for their service during the last year and a half of pandemic and welcome Ariel Alexander and Leslie Nichols who will fill their shoes. The Tree has been tweaked so you may have a new Captain. - Our thoughts are with Ariel Alexander in the recent death of her longtime friend Joseph Golding.
- We have many members and friends recovering from various surgeries, accidents and illnesses. We wish Barbara Beach, Jan Shepherd, Nuri Ronaghy, Allan Shorb and Constancia Leshin well as they are all on the road to recovery.
- Our thoughts continue to be with Michael Wood in his recovery from a stroke this summer. There is a Go Fund Me at <https://gofund.me/033dca57> should you be able to help financially. Michael is home with his family Sushila, Amiya, Evelyn and Byron.
- Rev. Maddie brings greetings from your former minister, Rev. Carolyn Price, who she met for lunch when Carolyn visited her daughter in Ojai recently.

According to the Bylaws of the Universalist Unitarian Church of Santa Paula, the Committee on Congregational Life's primary mission to evaluate the overall effectiveness of the congregation's ministry (ordained, staff and laity). The COCL is not a committee of the Board, but a committee of the congregation in special relationship to the Board. It consists of three members serving staggered terms of two years each, with no member serving more than three consecutive terms. Current members are Judy Triem, Ken Stock and the Rev. Dr. Betty Stapleford. Members are encouraged to let Rev. ## Congregational Conversation: October 14th 6pm-8pm Should UUCSP Adopt the 8th Principle?

Walking Each Other Home, UUCSPs monthly antiracism discussion group, is hosting another congregational conversation in person at the sanctuary on to discuss whether UUCSP should adopt the 8th principle. Kate English will facilitate the dialogue. We encourage all to participate.

The 8th Principle is a grassroots movement that began in 2013 and now many UU congregations have adopted it. For more information about the 8th principle go to:

<https://www.8thprincipleuu.org/background>

The 8th principle:

"We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote: journeying toward spiritual wholeness by working to build a diverse multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and our institutions."

Walking Each Other Home would also like to invite you to participate in this congregational survey regarding the 8th principle. <https://bit.ly/UUCSP8th> Should there be sufficient support for adopting the 8th principle, we will request formal adoption through a board and congregational voting process in accordance with the church bylaws.

Dear Friends in the Pacific Southwest District (PSWD),

Thank you if you attended our last PSWD special business meeting on August 21. We hope you will attend our next special business meeting on Saturday, October 2, from 10am-12pm and invite others.

We will vote on merging the district with the Pacific Western Region (PWR). The PSWD is one of four districts in the PWR. It is expected that all districts will merge with the PWR, completing the process of regionalization that the UUA announced in 2009.

There will be a time for questions regarding the merger and what will come next. In a step towards wholeness and inclusion, we encourage questions to be emailed to our Board before Tuesday, September 28th so that we can do our best to receive and answer all questions, not only those asked during the question section of our meeting. Many common questions and answers are available at: News | Pacific Southwest District \(pswduua.org\).

Our presentation will include highlights of the past 60 years of the PSWD. We are asking for contributors to our program, particularly from youth and young adults in your communities. Please let us know if you are interested in participating.

We can not do the important work of living into Big Faith, No Borders without all of us.
