DECEMBER 2021 SERVICES, SUNDAYS AT 10:30 AM

DECEMBER THEME: Opening to Joy

How can we open to the joy of this season? Can we even find joy? Author Robin Wall

Kimmerer has said: "Even a wounded world is feeding us. Even a wounded world holds us, giving us moments of wonder and joy. I choose joy over despair. Not because I have my head in the sand, but because joy is what the earth gives me daily and I must return the gift."

Sunday, December 5 The Somatics of Joy

Kate English, Rev. Dr. Betty Stapleford

Where does joy live in our bodies? Are there body practices that can increase our joy? Church member, Kate English, will lead the service and share some simple trauma informed approaches and ideas to assist us in understanding our own bodies better and expand on the growing field of somatics in the therapeutic and healing sciences.

Second Sunday in Advent

First Sunday Plate to Interface Youth and Family Services

Sunday, December 12 Opening to Joy

Rev. Maddie Sifantus, Jerry Gray

Where do you find joy? Brene Brown says that "Joy comes to us in moments – ordinary moments. We risk missing out on joy when we get too busy chasing down the extraordinary." Rev. Maddie considers ordinary moments for creating joy.

Third Sunday in Advent

Tuesday, December 14 7 PM Holiday Twilight Gathering

Rev. Maddie, Atul Ranchod, Geno Palilla and Christine Snipes Mazor

Message from the Minister

Our theme for this month from Soul Matters is “Opening to Joy”. We often hear at this time of year about the “joy of the season”. I don’t know about you, but each time these holidays roll around once again, I do have some joyful moments, if I can stop long enough to notice them. And I have some sad moments when I think of all those I have lost over the years and lonely moments when I am aware of how I live far from most of my family and friends. And there are some angry moments when the rampant consumerism that these holidays are about for some gets to me. And there are the overwhelmed moments when I just have no idea how I am going to get everything done...and other moments where I sink into the sounds of favorite Carols and other music of the season and the twinkling of lights strung up outside my neighbors’ homes.

We have a lot going on at our congregation; take a look at the schedule inside this newsletter and pay attention when you get your Friday eblasts, as things have a way of changing. Pick and choose what you want to take part in, what brings you joy. Reach out to others to bring comfort in these challenging times and look for joy in the small things. As Scott Taylor says in the poem below, “Joy doesn’t simply arise.”

*Joy doesn't simply arise
It flies.
It flings.
No, it is flung.
It is passed,
it is spread,
between you and me,
between the one who just received a gift
and the one that has been looking for it a long time.
It's a beautiful and elegant contagion,
over which we have more control than we think.
If only we share it.
If only we notice that joy is not ours to keep,
but ours to pass on.
So let's light up the world, friends!
Joy blesses us with its exuberance,
so we can make that blessing grow!*

Let us grow our blessings together.

On the path of our faith, Reverend Maddie

Do You Have a Favorite Holiday Tradition?

On December 26, the service will be centered around holiday traditions. Did you spin a dreidel and eat potato latkes? Perhaps you stayed up late on Christmas Eve to decorate sugar cookies for Santa and his reindeer? Or maybe you skipped the whole thing and went out for pizza and a movie on Christmas day! Whatever your beliefs, do you have a holiday tradition you would be willing to share? You can either tell your story from the pulpit or we can read it aloud on your behalf, whichever feels most comfortable to you. Please contact Ruth Ricards if you are interested in participating in this holiday service.

REV. MADDIE'S OFFICE HOURS

During this time when some are not comfortable yet coming into our church building, Rev. Maddie is available to meet with you on Zoom, at an outdoor location in the Santa Paula area or at your home. If you do feel comfortable coming into the church, she is usually available in the office by appointment or potluck drop in from Tuesday through Friday. Rev. Maddie's office is located in the "addition" across from the rest rooms at the back of our building. Text or call her to open the gate. Monday is Rev. Maddie's day off and Saturday is her study/sermon writing day. Some days she is working from home but can get to the office in five minutes if something comes up. The best way to plan a time to meet with her is to call and leave a message on her private line at the church, 805-525-4620, call her on her cell phone, 508-733-8860 or email her at minister@uucsp.org.

Pastoral Coverage

Rev. Maddie will be on her final week of 2021 Vacation from December 2-9. During this time the Rev. Dr. Stapleford will be covering for her in the case of a pastoral emergency. You can call or email the office to reach her: 805-525-4647 or office@uucsp.org.

NEWS FROM AMONG US - December 2021

- We are hoping to have the live microphone starting this for those in the Sanctuary to share but for the time being, for those online, please email Rev. Maddie your joys, concerns or milestones by 9 AM Sunday morning for inclusion in the service. You can also write them in the CHAT and have them read during the service.
- We continue to think of the Staplefords. Betty is recovering well from her fractured clavicle and is back to her old schedule. Tom is beginning radiation for breast cancer after successful surgery. And they have a new kitty! His name is Theodore Parker; they call him Parker.
- Jan Shepherd is doing well and is hoping that her daughter Renee will drive her to church some Sunday before to long.
- Barbara Beach is also doing well. We hope she will be able to sing with us in the choir soon!
- If you have any News from Among Us you would like to share with our community, please let Rev. Maddie know by the newsletter deadline which is the 15th of every month.

SANTA PAULA CINEMA SOCIETY

Martine and Philippa, two pious and unmarried sisters living in a village on a remote coastline of Denmark in the 19th century are visited by a stranger, a young French woman named Babette. She carries with her a letter of introduction that she hopes will gain her employment as their housekeeper. The sisters have no means to pay her, so with nowhere else to go, Babette agrees to work for bed and board. Over the next fourteen years the sisters' austere lifestyle is gradually transformed by the meals Babette prepares for them, and finally one for the entire village, the likes of which no one living there had ever imagined possible, an edible expression of love, friendship, and gratitude. Sometimes called the ultimate foodie film, the luminous Babette's Feast (Babettes Gæstebud) won the Academy Award for best foreign language film of 1987, among many others. In Danish with subtitles (1:43).

Established in the late 19th Century, the Mary A. Livermore Society is the longest standing women's group in Ventura County. It is over 100 years old. Mary Livermore, popular American reformer, is best known for her volunteer work during the Civil War. She is also known for lectures and writing on behalf of women's social, political and educational rights throughout the late 19th century. for women's education as well as abolition and temperance. Come join us at our monthly meetings, sometimes on zoom and sometimes in person! We have no membership requirements and our programming in the coming year will be interesting! Stay tuned for more information!

The December 16th meeting of the Mary A's promises to be a fun event. We are having a Tea Party, inspired by the most beloved Tea Party scene in Alice and Wonderland. Although the Mad Hatter and other notable characters will not be in attendance, the women in the group are known to be interesting and unique. (Usually our meetings feature a topic based on human rights, civil rights, voting rights, reproductive rights and other women's issues.) The purpose of this meeting will be to celebrate life and ourselves and to brainstorm about our next year of programming.

Our Tea Party will begin at 11:30 in the Social Hall of Church. Attendance is limited! Tea Party attire is encouraged. Please RSVP by December 12th to Constancia: constancia47@gmail.com or call 661-478-3213 and leave a message! ## CHOIR: SING!

How wonderful it was to be back singing on our Thanksgiving Sunday, even with only the 6 of us. In December, we will sing for at the service on Sunday, December 19 which will be a Music Sunday. There will be an hour rehearsal on December 16 at 4:00 PM to work on "A Midnight Clear" which we have done before. Please come on Sunday, December 19 ready to sing at 10 AM; there will be soloists rehearsing before the choir rehearsal. We will also be singing for the Winter Solstice featuring the music of Chucumite on Tuesday, December 21 at 7:00 PM. We will lead some singing, with songs we have done in the past and one new piece. And I am putting together a group of singers to sing for the Tree Lighting of the Santa Clara Valley Hospice's Light Up a Life which takes place across the street from the church on Saturday, December 18 at 5:30 PM. (note the difference in time from the last newsletter). Please let me know if you are interested. We will be singing familiar holiday music.

In normal times the choir usually sings once a month for the Sunday Service. All are welcome to join our choir, including our young singers who are able to read music and singers who only attend church when the choir sings. Rehearsals are directed by Rev. Maddie and accompanied by Vincent Sorisio. Please be in touch with Rev. Maddie with any questions at minister@uucsp.org or 805-525-4620. All invited to sing!
