Message from the Minister

Greetings of this busy season! I hope that you will think of our church community when you are planning your December schedule. We have both in person and online options as we go forward in our hybrid way, grateful for the technology and the tech team that keep us connected. I hope you will feel safe enough to come back in person, but we understand that not everyone does, and others live clear across the country or up in Washington State! I have made a list of services and other happenings in our congregation which is posted in the Parish Hall, and you can read about in this newsletter. Please come to all or some to be part of our beloved community.

As you do your shopping, you can consider giving a gift in someone's name or your own to support a worthy organization, such as the Guest at the Table which benefits the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee. You can buy some gift cards from restaurants such as Foster Freeze, McDonald's, Subway or the like which we are collecting to give to the Spirit of Santa Paula for gifts to their adult clients (the children are already covered; please no gift cards to anywhere the sells alcohol or tobacco products). Or perhaps you wish to give a special year's end donation in addition to your pledge to this church to support its historic building, its programs, and ministries.

When you need a sacred pause from the fray, come to our Monday Meditation Workshop with Corrine Carson or the Wednesday Meditation Practice Group, both at 6 PM (see schedules elsewhere in this newsletter.) During our Sunday service, all month long we will be singing some of the hymns and carols of the season. The Gathering on December 13 at 7 PM will have Geno Palilla, Christine Mazor and me doing classical music with poems by Atul Ranchod. Holiday Rise Up Singing will be on Friday, December 16 at 7 PM in the Parish Hall. Our collaboration with DeColores Multicultural Folk Arts continues as Las Posadas starts at our church on December 17 at 6 PM and wends its way through town ending up at the Agriculture Museum. We will mark the Winter Solstice with a Celebration at 7 PM on Wednesday, December 21. Join me in our traditional Christmas Eve service at 5 PM or come to Brunch Church on Sunday, December 25 at 10:30 AM. And if that weren't enough, we have a couple of other things up our sleeves so pay attention to our Friday eblasts. Phew!

But, most of all, my hope is that you will find a measure of wonder, peace, and joy during this complicated season. And if you want someone to chat with, know that I am available, both during my announced office hours and other times. Or come to our Blue Christmas service sponsored by our Caring Committee on Thursday, December 8 at 3 PM in the Sanctuary and share with others who may have difficulty with the holidays.

Welcome Yule! Merry Christmas! Happy Hanukkah! And more....

On the path of our faith, Rev. Maddie Sifantus

Rev. Maddie's Office Hours

Rev. Maddie would love to meet with you to hear how you are doing, how you are nurturing your spirit, your thoughts and dreams for our congregation or your family or how you might like to be involved at UUCSP if you are newer. She is usually available in the office by appointment or potluck drop in from Tuesday through Friday. Rev. Maddie's office is located in the "addition" across from the rest rooms at the back of our building. Text or call her to open the gate. Monday is Rev. Maddie's day off and Saturday is her study/sermon writing day. Some days she is working from home but can get to the office in five minutes if something comes up. The best way to plan a time to meet with her is to call and leave a message on her private line at the church, 805-525-4620, call her on her cell phone, 508-733-8860 or email her at minister@uucsp.org. Note that Rev. Maddie will be on Study Leave from December 26 through January 2 but will be in the area in case of an emergency.

Spiritual Growth Center

SPIRITUAL GROWTH CENTER

Rev. Maddie created the Spiritual Growth Center at the Universalist Unitarian Church of Santa Paula when she arrived in January 2015. During the last two years of pandemic, the only three activities that have continued have been the Gathering, Yoga on Tuesday and Thursday mornings with Lisa Hammond and our Meditation Practice Group with Rev. Maddie alternating with psychologist Jim Cole. In the past, we have offered End of Life planning, Singing Meditation, evenings with teacher Gurdeep Singh. We are now adding a second meditation group on Mondays with Corrine Carson. The Spiritual Growth Center is meant to include our adult religious education offerings and spiritual practices, providing opportunities and programs to awaken and sustain love, compassion, service, and personal transformation. Our goal is to help individuals discover how spiritual practice, learning, and community service can transform their lives and move the world toward peace and justice. Our programs are guided by the set of Seven Principles of Unitarian Universalism and the Six Sources they draw from. One of the Principles affirms our intention to accept one another and encourage each other's spiritual growth. Please let Rev. Maddie know what activities interest you and if you know of any local teachers who may wish to provide a one time or series that fits with our UU values. minister@uucsp.org

THE ENCHANTED EARTH MEDITATION with CORRINE CARSON MONDAY'S 6pm – 7pm IN PERSON

"A human being is a part of the whole, called by us 'Universe.' He experiences himself, his thoughts and feelings as something separated from the rest - a kind of optical delusion of his consciousness. This delusion is a kind of prison for us, restricting us to our personal desires and to affection for a few persons nearest to us. Our task must be to free ourselves from prison by widening our circle of compassion to embrace all living creatures and the whole of nature in its beauty." - Albert Einstein

During the month of December, we will continue our discussion of the traditions and spirituality of the World Soul, Anima Mundi. Our meditations will focus on Communitas, the spirit of a community of equals that creates a sense of belonging. Our discussion highlights will be:

December 5 – The Greenman and Santa Claus

December 12 - Angels and Elves

December19 - Labyrinth Winter Solstice Walk

December26 - Class Cancelled in honor of Christmas

Please join our community for an hour-long class of a guided meditation and discussion. This gathering is held weekly and is in person in the Parish Hall. Cost is $10.00.

Please contact Corrine if you have any question at cori127@aol.com or 661-7556105

News from Among Us December 2022

- Our member Steve Lattimore who moved to the San Diego area several years sends greetings to us all and hopes to see us before too long. He says that, aside from some minor aches and pains which are not keeping him from walking that "he is still having a wonderful life."
- Our friend Janice Kreider and her husband "Saint" (Steve St. Louis) visited us recently while picking up their new dog from the LA German Shepherd Rescue.
- We are sending Donna Hamer off to her new life in Ferndale, Washington with all our best wishes. She will leave for LAX on 12/17 at 4:30 am. Her phone number and email address remain the same, but her new address is 6153 Apollo Drive, Ferndale, WA 98248. Donna welcomes visitors to the Pacific Northwest, as her new house there has plenty of room.

Before Donna leaves, she will be performing with the Gold Coast Concert Chorus on December 9 at 7 pm at St. John's Lutheran Church, 1500 C Street in Oxnard.

- If you have a joy, concern, or milestone you wish to share, you can announce it in person on Sundays, or send it to Rev. Maddie by Noon on Friday and she will get it to the appropriate Worship Host to include in the service. If you are on Zoom, you can write it in the CHAT.
- If you have any News from Among Us you would like to share with our community, please let Rev. Maddie know by the newsletter deadline which is the 15th of every month.

SOCIAL CONCERNS ACTION COMMITTEE

The Social Concerns Action Committee will not meet officially in December, neither in person nor virtually. We have had a full year. We will meet in January 2023. In the meantime, enjoy the holidays.

HOLIDAY GIFT CARDS FOR THOSE WHO WILL NOT RECEIVE GIFTS

The Spirit of Santa Paula serves unhoused individuals and families, some of the most vulnerable in Santa Paula. We used to buy gifts for children through Goodwill but this year we will be collecting gift cards to be given to the adults at the Spirit of Santa Paula's Harvard shelter. The children there have already been provided for, but Kay Wilson Bolton tells us that the adults will love to receive a gift. There is no room at the shelter for more "things" but gift cards to McDonald's, Subway, Foster Freeze or the like would be much appreciated, for individuals or several would allow a parent to take their family. Please purchase gift cards from $10-25 and give to Rev. Maddie or the office by December 20 so they can be brought to the Spirit of Santa Paula.

SANTA PAULA CINEMA SOCIETY

Today we think of The Wizard of Oz as if was always a film classic, but on its release in 1939 it was greeted with underwhelming box office in the U.S. Even star Judy Garland somehow managed not to see the finished product until a year afterwards. It was also largely snubbed by the Academy, though in fairness the competition was unusually stiff in that legendary filmmaking year. It took almost two decades and TV to turn Oz into a cultural fixture, beginning with its debut on CBS in November 1956, followed a few years later with annual airings, usually in that month. The fact that TV transformed Oz a holiday staple, despite being carved down to fit into a time slot, interrupted with commercials, and for most viewers, seen in black and white, speaks to the strength of the filmmaking. With the end its decades-long tour of TV, Oz was finally restored to its original release length and glorious Technicolor, and more recently transferred digitally to HD, so it can now be seen much as it was originally intended. Yet how many of the millions who were brought up on the "holiday Oz" have ever viewed it anywhere but on the small screen? It's time to put that right. The Emerald City awaits, and you have probably never seen it this way before! (1:42)

ALL CHURCH READ

Every year we participate in the UUA's Common Read which we call the All Church Read. The 2022–2023 UU Common Read is Mistakes and Miracles: Congregations on the Road to Multiculturalism by Nancy Palmer Jones and Karin Lin, published by Skinner House Books. The Common Read builds community in our congregations and our movement by giving diverse people a shared platform for reflection and a shared focus for action. Rev. Maddie preached about this book when it was first released several years ago, and it is a natural fit for us as we think about how to welcome our neighbors to our activities and services and be involved with our community here in Santa Paula.

What calls Unitarian Universalists to create multicultural, antiracist Beloved Community? What do congregations need when they embark on this journey? What common threads run through their stories? In Mistakes and Miracles, Nancy Palmer Jones and Karin Lin—a white minister and a lay person of color—share how five diverse congregations encounter frustrations and disappointments, as well as hope and wonder, once they commit to the journey. The world has seen much turmoil, pain, and yes, glimmers of hope, in the three years since the publication of Mistakes and Miracles. As we enter a Common Read of this book, we find ourselves receiving its report with a changed spirit, an urgent need, and perhaps new hope for multiculturalism and antiracism work in our movement. We will be discussing it together in early 2023 so start reading now!
